

Reminder of and Unauthorized Copying or Forwarding of this book out of Respect for the work put in by the Author

Thank you very much for purchasing this book, I greatly appreciate it.

I hereby want to let you know what that means me.

I have sacrificed an enormous amount of my time to be able to tirelessly work on this book over the last 15 years. I have thereby struggled to be able to cover my living costs, but I was determined to continue because I was convinced it would bring about something that would make a difference.

I have a couple more books in the pipe-line that will complete my vision of what my contribution to Humanity consists of.

Any financial contribution coming from sales of this book is therefore vital for me to work on materializing that. I hope you can keep that in mind and not forward a copy of this book to somebody so they do not need to buy it themselves.

Thank you,
P.S. Offenbach
